

Association
des orchestres
de jeunes
du Québec

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Festival AOJQ 2022 Cancelled

November 26, 2021 – With the continuation of the COVID-19 pandemic and the associated insecurities and unknowns, the Association des orchestres de jeunes du Québec (AOJQ) has decided to cancel the XXIst edition of its flagship event scheduled for April 15,16, and 17, 2022.

The AOJQ administrators met on Wednesday, November 24th and agreed to cancel the 2022 Festival.

The Board of directors wishes to thank all individuals and companies who have contributed thus far to the Festivals' organisation.

-

Founded in 1979, the mission of the Association des orchestres de jeunes du Québec (AOJQ) is to bring together and represent youth symphony orchestras across Québec. More than 10,000 musicians have been members of the Association since its foundation, many of whom have pursued professional careers as musicians.

- 30 -

For information :

Amanda Kitik, Vice-president, Communication and partnerships Association des orchestres de jeunes du Québec

partenariats@aojq.qc.ca

Website

Facebook